THIS SUNDAY AT 3pm THERE WILL BE A NATIONAL TEST OF THE UK EMERGENCY ALERT SERVICES

Emergency Alerts is a UK government service that will warn you if there is a danger to life nearby. In an emergency, your mobile phone or tablet will receive an alert with advice about how to stay safe. The government does not need to know your phone number or location to send you an alert.

Reasons you might get an alert:

- Severe flooding
- Fires
- Extreme weather

Emergency alerts will only be sent by:

- The emergency services
- Government departments, agencies and public bodies that deal with emergencies

When you get an emergency alert your mobile phone or tablet may:

- Make a loud siren-like sound, even if it is set on silent
- Vibrate
- Read out the alert

The sound and vibration will last for about 10 seconds

If you are deaf, hard of hearing, blind or partially sighted, audio and vibration signals will let you know you have an emergency alert

An alert, which is based on your current location and not where you work or live, will include a phone number or link to the GOV.UK website for more information.
